Later, Nick finds out a secret about his cousin and his neighbour Daisy and Gatsby are lovers. But the problems begin when everything is found out, in a party. Where Tom, Jay and Daisy told the truth.

Later at this party Daisy takes Gatsby's car and drives too fast. In her way she runs over accidentally Tom's mistress and doesn't stop. Mrs Wilson died.

Personal opinion.

I think that the history is very interesting. But there are a lot of descriptions and it does very slowly.

However these descriptions have something positive. It finds in the time, for this reason one can imagine easier the scene.

I think that this book is one better book of Mr Fitzgerald, because he touches something about the life in different times.

Alternative ending.

When everything find out, Tom abandon Daisy to begin a new life with his mistress.

Daisy and Jay come true their dreams. They get married in the summer.

They are rich people, but something is wrong. They are unhappy, because they aren't with their ideal couple.

But now everybody are happy, because they are with their lovers.
